

ENROLLMENT HISTORY

Your 2023-24 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) has been flagged for “Unusual Enrollment History Review” by the US Department of Education with regard to the receipt of Federal Pell Grant or Direct Loan funds at multiple education institutions during the review period 2019-20, 2020-21, 2021-22 and 2022-23. The US Department of Education requires that we collect information about your prior enrollments. We must review your official academic transcripts for the entire time you received Federal Pell Grant or Direct Loan funds at any/all education institutions during the review period (2019-20, 2020-21, 2021-22 and 2022-23). In addition, if you did not earn academic credit during any term at any of the institutions during the review period you must attach a typed statement explaining the reason for your failure to earn academic credit at that institution during the review period. Include any relevant third party documentation (i.e., medical bills, hospitalization records, accident reports, etc).

Complete this form and submit it to your financial aid administrator as soon as possible to avoid a delay in the processing of your financial aid.

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO:

- Submit academic transcripts for the entire time you received Federal Pell Grant or Direct Loans during the 2019-20, 2020-21, 2021-22 and 2022-23 academic years. (Enrollment history is available on your student record at www.nslsds.ed.gov). If you have already submitted transcripts for all institutions to the Registrar at Grand View University, you do not need to resubmit.
- Complete a typed statement for each school you received Federal Pell Grant or Direct Loan funds during the review period for which you did not earn academic credit.
- Attach third-party documentation to support your statement.

Submit the completed, signed worksheet, transcripts, and typed statement(s) with supporting documentation if you did not earn academic credit during any period to your financial aid administrator.
