

Organizational Studies

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Arts

Requirements for the Major: 45 credits

The Organizational Studies major integrates courses in business and public sector organization/management, social sciences, and technical skills. This major enables students to integrate studies that they have already completed into a baccalaureate degree major and to enrich these studies through exposure to course work in the arts, social sciences, humanities, and the sciences. Students are expected to consult with their advisors in developing their particular program of study.
